Rajasabhabhushana Dewan Bahadur Sir K.P. Puttanna Chetty has forwarded a Memorandum* outlining the arrangements proposed for celebrating the Silver Jubilee of His Highness's reign in a fitting manner.

(Copy submitted)

2. Under His Highness's instructions, Sir K.P. Puttanna Chetty has already been informed that His Highness may not find it convenient to receive any address on the occasion. Subject to His Highness's final decision in the matter, the celebrations in both the cities as well as in other places will consist of

(1) service in all religious institutions, such as temples, churches, mosques, etc.,

(2) feeding of the poor,

(3) treating of school children,

(4) illuminations, etc.

3. A public meeting will be held on Monday 11th April 1927 at Bangalore, at which I have been requested to preside, for the purpose of concerting measures to carry out the objects of the movement and to appoint a committee to deal with matters of detail.

4. The day appointed for the celebrations viz., 8th August 1927, will be declared a public holiday.

5. The organisers request that the Municipalities and District Boards be allowed to make suitable grants for local celebrations. This will be left to the option of the local bodies concerned.

6. It is proposed to put up a statue of His Highness at Mysore in order to commemorate this most happy auspicious occasion.

7. Action will also be taken in due course for granting remission of sentences and releasing prisoners in appropriate cases as is usually done on such occasions.

7. Pending further details that may be received from the organisers the above tentative proposals are submitted for His Highness's information.
